

ABOUT US

The Burnside Painting Group is a community group run by a committee of volunteers, which has been promoting art in the community since 1963.

Members range from beginners to experienced artists. Membership is open to anyone who enjoys painting and drawing and new members are always welcome.

Classes are usually held at the following times:

Mondays: 10am - 12.30

Wednesdays: 7pm - 9.30pm

Thursdays: 10 am - 12.30

(some classes may run a little longer)

Our members work in a variety of mediums such as watercolour, acrylic or oil.

Members have the opportunity to exhibit and sell their work at exhibitions held by the group, including the group's Annual SALA Exhibition.

We also hold regular gallery visits and social events, with demonstrations and talks presented by accomplished artists. Members can also enjoy Plein Air Painting that is offered as part of your membership.
